

STAFF RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION MANAGING THE VITAL ASPECT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Attracting new teachers into the profession is becoming increasingly challenging and school leaders recognise the advantages of retaining and developing their existing staff. Recruitment and induction is both time consuming and expensive, yet are a vital part of strategic management.

This course is perfect for existing Headteachers, Senior Leaders and Business Managers. It will be led by an inspirational practitioner with extensive experience of leading, recruiting and retaining the largest school workforce in Wales. We will focus on the effective use of resources, the importance of succession planning and the challenges that are ahead with devolved pay and conditions.
